Today a man discovered gold and fame;
Another flew the stormy seas;
Another saw an unnamed world aflame;
One found the germ of a disease.

While trying to find something to put on this page I came across a phrase written by John Heywood "Love me, love my dog" I wanted to mention it because I felt it had something in common with my life, it's absurd. Then I thought a while and I figured that because this is my senior page I should put something more meaningful on it so instead I quoted Gibran.

TO THE CLASS OF '73

In many ways this is the most significant time of your lives. A time for looking back . . . and planning ahead.

You have individually and collectively accomplished something of which you can be proud. You have graduated . . . and in doing so you have left your mark on your classmates, your school and your community.

But things are changing for you . . . you are adults. Complete with a new set of right, privileges, responsibilities and challenges. Much of the shape of our society depends on just what you do with these new challenges and responsibilities.

We, at Sperry New Holland, have faith that you will make the right choice and select the right course using the keen judgement and idealism that is characteristic of your generation.

It is in this faith that Sperry New Holland and its employees offer heartiest congratulations and best wishes to you.

Dave, a wrestling but a pretty good basketball and soccer player).
See ya next year. (hmm)
Tom

Keep peace with your soul.
With all its sham,
drudgery and broken dreams,
it is still a beautiful world.
Be careful.
Strive to be happy.

Writing taken from Desiderata.

David,
Your really not bad, most of the time your nice to me, so I hope you have a good summer and a good year next year.

I'll try not to write a book.
Sue

David –
I must say that you have at times controlled yourself in class.
I would love to see more of that next fall. Enjoy your summer
D Bluttrell

Dear Ava,

Maybe our ~~ff~~ friendship has slacken but I still like you when your nice, but I'm not saying ~~you're~~ it's all your fault. I bet ~~I~~ summer chances are I'll be going to Greece this summer so I probably won't see you.

Do ~~I~~ a guy who stutters in French class while speaking French)
